
Related resources for students

These resources can be used to reinforce or expand upon students' understanding of key concepts in the module.

Resource: Consumer Information: Credit and Loans

Source: Federal Trade Commission

Description: Provides information about credit and loans and the decisions people need to make before they apply for a loan or credit card

Link: <http://www.consumer.ftc.gov/topics/credit-and-loans>

Resource: Credit Reports and Scores Made Simple

Source: Institute for Socio-Financial Studies

Description: Explains credit reports and scoring

Link: <http://www.learnaboutcreditreports.org>

Resource: Credit Reports and Scores

Source: United States Government

Description: Provides information about how to get a credit report, read a credit report, and make corrections

Link: <https://www.usa.gov/credit-reports>

Resource: Credit Reports and Credit Scores

Source: The Federal Reserve

Description: Answers frequently asked questions about credit reports and credit scores, along with links about how to deal with debt and repair credit

Link: <http://www.federalreserve.gov/creditreports>

Resource: Five Tips for Improving Your Credit Score

Source: The Federal Reserve

Description: Discusses five ways to improve a credit score

Link: http://www.federalreserve.gov/consumerinfo/fivetips_creditscore.htm

Resource: Annual Credit Report.Com

Source: AnnualCreditReport.com

Description: Website established under federal law that entitles each person to one free credit report each year from each of the three major credit reporting companies—Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion.

Link: <https://www.annualcreditreport.com/index.action>