
Related resources for students

These resources can be used to reinforce or expand upon students' understanding of key concepts in the module.

Resource: Credit

Source: ConsumerJungle.org

Description: Student-created articles about a variety of credit topics, plus links to additional sources of helpful information

Link: <http://consumerjungle.org/manage-money/credit>

Resource: Know Before You Owe: Credit Cards

Source: Consumer Financial Protection Bureau

Description: Collection of data about the credit card complaints and agreements and a survey of credit card plans

Link: <http://www.consumerfinance.gov/credit-cards/>

Resource: How Credit Cards Work and Why It's So Easy to Fall Into Debt

Source: KQED News

Description: Entertaining and informative video that explains how credit cards work and why they can often lead people into debt

Link: <http://ww2.kqed.org/lowdown/2014/01/21/how-credit-cards-really-work/>

Resource: Consumer Information: Credit and Loans

Source: Federal Trade Commission

Description: Provides information about credit and loans and the decisions people need to make before they apply for a loan or credit card

Link: <http://www.consumer.ftc.gov/topics/credit-and-loans>

Resource: Credit Reports and Scores

Source: United States Government

Description: Provides information about how to get a credit report, read a credit report, and make corrections

Link: <https://www.usa.gov/credit-reports>

Resource: AnnualCreditReport.com

Source: AnnualCreditReport.com

Description: Website established under federal law that entitles each person to one free credit report each year from each of the three major credit reporting companies—Equifax, Experian, and TransUnion

Link: <https://www.annualcreditreport.com/index.action>